(4) Read the following passages carefully and answer the questions that follow :

In reply to the first question, some said the king must prepare a timetable, and then follow it strictly. Only in this way, they said, could he do everything at its proper time. Others said that it was impossible to decide in advance the right time for doing something.

The king should notice all that was going on, avoid foolish pleasures, and always do whatever seemed necessary at that time. Yet others said that the king needed a council of wise men who would help him act at the proper time. This was because one man would find it impossible to decide correctly, without help from others, the right time for every action.

- 1. How could the king do everything at its proper time?
- 2. What should the king avoid?
- 3. How would a council of wise men help the king?

(5) Read the following passages carefully and answer the questions that follow.

The old dame made it a cushion of blue crape, and at mealtime Muko -for that was its name - would sit on it as snug as any cat. The kind people fed the pet with tidbits of fish from their own chopsticks, and all the boiled rice it wanted. Thus treated, the dumb creature loved its protectors like a being with a soul.

The old man, being a rice farmer, went daily with hoe or spade into the fields, working hard from morning until o Tento Sama (as the sun is called) had gone down behind the hills. Every day the dog followed him to work.
